DAMAGES DENIED IN AUTO CRASH; JURY DISAGREED

A ten-page opinion handed down by Judge W. C. Sheely, Saturday, found that Nelson E. Mellott, Gettysburg R. 5, driver of a truck in an accident occurring August 6, 1942, at the intersection of the Lincoln highway and the Bonneauville-Granite road, was guilty of contributory negligence.

As result, a motion by the defendant, Mrs. Katherine Tuckey, Wenksville, asking that judgment be entered in her favor was granted by the court.

The case had been tried in January, with Mellott and his father, B. Rush Mellott, suing Mrs. Tuckey. The jury failed to agree and was discharged after seven hours. The case was scheduled for April court while Mrs. Tuckey filed her motion for judgment.

Reviews Testimony
The opinion points out that "judgment can be entered for the defendant only if the evidence, viewed in the light most advantageous to the plaintiff, resolving all conflicts therein in his favor and giving him the benefit of every fact and inference pertaining to the issues involved which may be reasonably deduced therefrom, would not justify a verdict and judgment in his favor."

According to the opinion the testimony showed that Nelson Mellott was crossing the Lincoln highway at the intersection with the Bonneauville-Granite road, while Mrs. Tuckey was approaching on the Lincoln highway.

Mellott stopped at the intersection, looked west and east and saw nothing. He pulled out into the Lincoln highway and "entered the intersection without looking again in either direction until his whole car was just about in the middle lane." At that point, with his car traveling seven miles an hour, he looked west and saw the defendant's car approaching at a distance of 325 feet.

Must Continue to Look
The court held that Mellott was negligent in that after looking both ways he proceeded to beyond the center of the highway before looking again to determine if anything were coming from the opposite direction. A number of cases are cited in which such procedure was called contributory negligence.

The court points out that it is (Please Turn to Page 2)

LOCAL GROUPS SHARE IN FUNDS

The county Red Cross War Fund and the Adams county Crippled Children society were recipients over the week-end of checks representing collections made at the Warner brothers' Majestic and Strand theaters here.

A check for $435.94 was sent by Manager Sidney Poppy today to officials of the Red Cross drive. The sum covers collections at the two theaters during the recent Red Cross week. The check was sent to the local theater by A. J. Vanni, zone manager of the theaters, who handled all funds connected with the Red Cross drive in theaters in this section.

On Sunday a check for $166.01 was turned over by Poppy to M. D. Detar of the local committee to raise funds for crippled children through the March of Dimes and the President's Birthday Ball. The sum represents 50 percent of the collections at the theaters during the March of Dimes period. The other half of the collection was sent to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The check was sent here by Ted Schlaeger, chairman of the theater drive in Pennsylvania for the National Infantile Paralysis fund.

No Special Gas For Visiting Sick

The local War Price and Rationing board called attention today to the fact that special rations of gasoline are not allowed for the purpose of visiting sick persons in hospitals or in private homes. The announcement was made, it was explained, in view of an increasing number of special applications of this type for extra gasoline.

The board spokesman said that in view of the fact that many of the applications are accompanied by letters from physicians, the board felt that countians should know such applications cannot be granted and thereby save overworked doctors the annoyance of preparing such statements.

DIES SUDDENLY ON VISIT HERE

Glenn W. Becker, 58-year-old Mechanicsburg barber, died suddenly Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mehring, York street, with whom he and his family had been spending the day.

Death was caused by acute cardiac dilatation, according to Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner. Becker had become ill in the early evening and stayed at the Mehring home while other members of his family went with members of the Mehring family to church.

The deceased was a son of the late David and Jennie Reamer Becker, late of Cumberland county. His wife who was Maggie May Bobb, and a daughter, Mrs. John R. Petrov, had accompanied him on the visit here from Mechanicsburg.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at Mechanicsburg.

Wills Urges Bond Buying

"Every man, woman and child in Gettysburg and Adams county should not only work for the success of the Second War Loan, but should make a personal sacrifice to purchase one or more of the securities offered, because there is one to fit every pocketbook," according to C. A. Wills, president of the Gettysburg National bank.

"This is a season of sacrifice. Millions of our men in the armed forces are offering the supreme sacrifice, if necessary, to win this war. Many men from this county are among them. It is the least we can do, to make some personal sacrifice now by buying bonds offered in the Second War Loan, to support their efforts, especially since we will be building up a reserve purchasing power for tomorrow and get our money back with interest."

There is another vital reason—vital to every family in this county, why we should not only buy bonds during this drive ourselves but do everything possible toward seeing that everyone else buys them. That reason is to ward off inflation.

"Money that is hoarded away—whether it be in a bank account, in a safety deposit vault, in a teapot in the pantry or in your pocket—is loose money, slacker money, that isn't doing you any good now, but which, added to all of the other demand money in the country, can and assuredly will contribute to inflation unless it is invested in government bonds or some other form of saving, such as insurance."

"Inflation is a vicious circle. Prices soar. The money you are making today wouldn't meet the cost of living and, as prices mounted, the cost of living would mount until money, actually, would be worth nothing. It happened in Germany. It has happened, to a lesser, but no less uncomfortable, degree at times in this country. It would mean not only national bankruptcy but ruin for every individual family."

"They give their lives—let us lend our money."

POULTRY MEN URGED TO RAISE EGG PRODUCTION

Adams county poultrymen are asked by the government to produce approximately 5,272,000 dozen eggs this year, nearly 3.4 per cent more than in 1942, as their share in the Food for Victory program, the Northeastern Poultry Producers Council estimated today.

Leon Todd, managing director of NEPPCO, declared that farmers can reach this county goal, which is based on the percentage increase suggested for Pennsylvania by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, if adequate supplies of labor and feed are available.

"Poultry farmers are now working harder than ever in all-out war production," Todd said, "continuing the magnificent job they did last year by producing 5,099,000 dozen eggs in this country to help supply civilian, military and lease-lease needs. Also, two developments during last year have resulted in larger laying flocks on most farms today."

Feed, Labor Problems
"First, egg prices as shown by records of the larger purchasers of Pennsylvania eggs were so favorable that farmers saved an unusually large proportion of potential layers."

"Second, conditions in 1942 were good for raising pullets; fall weather was generally mild and the average hatching date was early."

"Those factors point to increased production," Todd explained, "if an improvement can be made in the farm skilled labor situation and if farmers can get enough protein feed. There are critical shortages of protein ingredients because imports have been cut so drastically. Even soybean oil meal is not being processed fast enough to meet demands. These are major problems facing the industry."

Pennsylvania poultrymen, who produced approximately 195,000,000 dozen eggs in 1942, are asked for 202,108,000 dozen this year as their share of the national egg goal of 4,780,000,000 dozen.

The certificate insignia is held by the paper as long as the newsboys continue to sell at least one stamp per subscriber per week. If the sales drop below that quota the award is withdrawn.

Small Investors Buy Less Than Billion Of Bonds In Big Drive

By JAMES D. WHITE

Washington, April 19 (AP)—John Q. Citizen is due for some visits by his local war bonds volunteer salesmen.

By last Friday night—when the Treasury's latest official figures were announced—Mr. Citizen had bought only $904,000,000 worth of War Savings bonds in a drive that has its sights set on a goal of 13 billion dollars.

This didn't mean that the drive wasn't going along nicely. The Treasury announced that a total of more than $9 billion had been subscribed by Friday night . . . 70 percent of the total sought had come rolling in within less than a week.

But what it apparently meant was that the cream had been skimmed off the pool of money which the Treasury thinks can and should be invested in war bonds.

The dance lasted from 8 to 11:30 p. m., with the girls arriving and leaving unescorted. The soldiers marched from their barracks to the dance and after the dance marched to their quarters in a body. Admission was by card only.

The big investor, generally speaking, is a bank, an insurance com-

TIMES CARRIERS EARN INSIGNIA FOR WAR EFFORT

The 19 carrier boys and girls of the Gettysburg Times who sell war stamps have won for this newspaper the insignia certificate which is the newspaper award comparing with the Army-Navy "E" pennant given industries.

That was learned today in a communication from Howard W. Stodghill, chairman of the newspaper advisory committee of the War Savings staff, Washington, D. C., in which he announced that The Times had won the award for selling its quota of at least 4,789 ten cent war stamps per week during January, February and March. The Times is one of 17 papers in the state to win the award.

The award consists of a replica of a ten cent defense stamp inscribed "Thanks—Henry Morgenthau, Jr." A similar lapel button is presented members of the circulation department. One of the lapel buttons has already been presented to Assistant Circulation Manager Genevieve Rose.

$550 DAMAGE IN 2 AUTO CRASHES

No one was injured in two accidents investigated over the weekend by members of the local substation of the motor police.

Roy Baker, Jr., Biglerville, was charged with failing to stop for a traffic light following a collision with a car driven by Glenn Stine Linebaugh, East Berlin, at 10:40 p. m. Saturday in center square at East Berlin. Total damage of $150 was reported. The charge against Baker was laid before Justice of the Peace Gleason Smith, East Berlin, by Private Anthony Martin, who investigated with Private George Ackerson.

The other accident occurred two miles west of New Oxford on the Lincoln highway at 12:45 a. m. Sunday. William J. Weaver, New Oxford, was traveling east and David Jones, Gettysburg, west, when the cars sideswiped. Damage was estimated at $400 by Private J. A. Treas, who investigated. Both cars were towed from the scene. There were no charges.

The material was purchased by the committee, headed by Dr. J. Walter Coleman, from funds donated by various persons of the county. An army truck was sent here this morning to pick up the furniture.

BOMBING RAIDS CAUSING GREAT NAZI ANXIETY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Those great week-end bombing raids by the Allies into the heart of Germany, and even beyond into distant Czechoslovakia, are indeed sensational news.

They mean that United Nations' air-power finally is putting the finger in a big way on Hitler's carefully secluded strength. It's the productive strength upon which he has been depending smugly to keep him going, because he thought it was outside the danger zone.

Take that Royal Air Force raid against Pilsen, clear across Germany and into Bohemia: That must have caused consternation in the Fuehrer's windy camp. When you say "Pilsen" you think of beer, but it wasn't beer his majesty's birdmen were after.

Pilsen is the site of the Skoda armament works—one of the greatest war plants in the whole world. It straddles over many acres and forms an enviable target for bombers. But Hitler wasn't much worried over Skoda, because it lay so deep in the continent that there seemed little fear the Allies could carry out more than rare token raids against it.

Cost Not Too High

The Skoda works have been the all highest's in the hole, for even though the more exposed Krupp armament works at Essen were knocked about, he still would have in Skoda the balance of strength needed to keep his war-machine running. Moreover, Skoda is centrally located and so can supply his forces in all the European theatres.

But an RAF fleet winged its way some 700 miles clear across Germany, in the midst of flying flak and attacks by fighter planes, to deluge peaceful Pilsen with death and destruction. At the same time another contingent of British bombers smashed at the important industrial cities of Mannheim and Ludwigshafen in southwest Germany. The two raids employed 600 heavy bombers, and 1,500 tons of bombs were loosed on the Boche. The British loss of 55 planes wasn't costly enough to make the operations unprofitable.

An Astonishing Feat

Simultaneously the Russians made another raid on Koenigsberg, the great German supply base in East Prussia. Neighboring Danzig and Rostock also were bombed. The Red airmen inflicted considerable damage.

But the British and Russian raids were only part of the story. The attack by American Flying Fortress on the Focke-Wulf airplane works at Bremen, resulting in more than half the factories being destroyed or heavily damaged, was a further heartening demonstration that Allied victory is on the wing.

This representation reflected the deepest penetration our bombers had made into German territory, and it was an astonishing feat. It was done in broad daylight and the huge bombers were unscathed by defending fighters. The distance was too great for fighter support.

Crumbling the Walls

This meant that the Fortresses had to fly across about the strongest anti-aircraft defenses on the continent. It meant that they had to battle their way through clouds of German fighter planes, as is shown by the remarkable fact that the Yankee crews shot down some 50 Nazi machines. That indicates fierce combat, to put it mildly, and it's a further convincing exhibition not only of the fire-power and armor which these air Leviathans have but of the capability of their crews. We lost 16 planes out of what is described as a large force.

All in all, the week-end's fresh display of Allied air power must be the cause of extreme anxiety to the Nazi high command. The increasing roar of United Nations bombers over territory which Hitler has regarded as secure, is the trumpet that will crumble the walls of Jericho and let the attacking armies in.

Held For Court On Beer Sale Charges

Theodore F. Miller, proprietor of Miller's Restaurant, Littlestown, and Mrs. Effie Stick Ingman, operator of the Black and White Inn, south of Littlestown on the Baltimore road, who were arrested Friday on charges of selling beer to minors and allowing minors to frequent their premises while not under proper supervision, were held for court following preliminary hearings this morning.

Both were released upon posting $500 bonds on each of the charges. The hearing was held before Justice of Peace Howard G. Blocher, Littlestown. Chief Roberts, of Littlestown, brought the two charges against Miller while Sheriff Daniel J. Wolff signed the two informations against Mrs. Ingman at the direction of the district attorney's office.

CORRECTION

Twenty-seven were confirmed and admitted into membership of St. James Lutheran church at Palm Sunday services Sunday morning and not 21 as erroneously reported in Saturday's edition of The Times. The list of members of the class was complete as reported Saturday but it was inadvertently stated that the number was 21 instead of 27.

War movies, several skits by employees and dancing will complete the program.

C. A. Bixler, District Manager, said "The rally is one of a series being conducted by the company to acquaint members of the telephone family with their place in the War program."

The board's annual report was made to members assembled for the yearly meeting at the Waldford-Aster hotel.

Attention was directed to the report of General Manager Kent Cooper in which he paid "striking tribute to the magnificent work of the staff under his direction in meeting the extraordinary problems of war time reporting in all its elements and to the brilliant work of correspondents assigned to battle areas."

TIMES CARRIERS

Paul Walters, Gettysburg carrier, set the pace for the other youngsters during the past three weeks by selling 210,446 stamps.

Three Leaders

That amount brings his total sales to 211,492 and puts him in third place in the total standings. The next largest amount of sales was made by J. Henry Hershey, of Cashtown, who sold 46,375 stamps during the past three weeks to retain his hold on second place in the total sold so far. Hershey has sold 248,856 stamps during the past 69 weeks.

Melvin Sease, Gettysburg carrier, won third honors during the past three weeks by selling 21,395. Melvin is in eleventh place with a total of 37,326 stamps. C. Arthur Brane, Jr., with 4,507 stamps to his credit during the past three weeks continued unchallenged at the top of the list of stamp salesmen with a total of 345,112 stamps.

As an example of how far over their quota the youths went to win the insignia award, the sales of Walters, Hershey or Sease, alone, would have been more than enough during the past three weeks to win the award.

Chester Small has rejoined the ranks of Times carrier stamp salesmen after an absence of six months. He has taken over the route formerly carried by E. Richard Hartlaub, who resigned to take other work.

The lists of sales during the past three weeks and total sales follows:

THE 2nd WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

Are you a Part-time American?

IT ISN'T HARD to figure your percentage as an American. Just check what you are doing against what you could do if you gave every minute of your day, every ounce of your energy . . . and, yes, every drop of your blood . . . toward winning this war.

Many men and many women have made that supreme contribution. Many more will make it—working, fighting, and dying—for American victory and American freedom. For the fight ahead is a hard one. We are just at its beginning, not at its middle, or near its end.

Of course, not all of us are—not all of us can be—in this fight with our lives. But every one of us, every man and woman, can be in it with our dollars!

Why a Lot More Money Is Needed NOW! With every foot of ground taken . . . with every naval task carried out . . . with every bombing mission against the enemy . . . the costs of war increase. More men are needed in the fight. More ships are needed for our supply lines. More planes and tanks and guns are needed on the expanding battle fronts.

This takes money. More money and still more money.

That's why the Government of the United States is asking us to lend it 13 billion dollars in the next few weeks. Asking us to invest, this month, an extra 13 billion dollars over and above our regular War Bond buying. And make no mistake about this: Uncle Sam's got to get that extra money to keep on fighting this war!

How to Invest Your Share!

Some time soon, you may be called on by a War Loan Drive volunteer. He'll tell you all about the greatest investments in the world today—the wartime securities of the United States. How they're tailored to fit your situation and your ability to buy.

But don't wait for him. Decide now to dig down—dig down deep. Then take every penny you can and go to your nearest bank or post office and turn the money into War Bonds.

Sure, it may hurt. But a lot of clean-cut young fellows in uniform are going to be hurt a lot worse than you are before this war is won. And don't ever forget this!

You're not giving your dollars—you're lending them. Your money's going to come back to you—and bring more money with it. Money that can mean not only no depression after this war, but plenty of peace-time jobs and peace-time goods for you and yours in a busier, more prosperous country than we've ever known.

So don't wait. For your Country's sake—for your own sake—invest all you can!

Here Are 7 Different Types of U. S. Government Obligations — Choose The Ones Best Suited to You:

United States War Savings Bonds—Series E: The perfect investment for individual and family savings. Gives you back $4 for every $3 when the Bond matures. Designed especially for the smaller investor. Dated 1st day of month in which payment is received. Interest: 2.9% a year if held to maturity. Denominations: $25, $50, $100, $500, $1000. Redemption: any time 60 days after issue date. Price: 75% of maturity value.

2½% Treasury Bonds of 1964-1969: Readily marketable, acceptable as bank collateral, these Bonds are ideal investments for trust funds, estates and individuals. A special feature provides that they may be redeemed at par and accrued interest for the purpose of satisfying Federal estate taxes. Dated April 15, 1943; due June 15, 1969. Denominations: $500, $1000, $5000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. Redemption: Not callable till June 15, 1964; thereafter at par and accrued interest on any interest date at 4 months' notice. Price: par and accrued interest.

Other Securities: Series "C" Tax Notes;  $\frac{1}{4}\%$  Certificates of Indebtedness; 2% Treasury Bonds of 1950-1952; United States Savings Bonds Series "F"; United States Savings Bonds Series "G".

An Evening Thought

He is a friend who, in dubious circumstances, aids in deeds when deeds are necessary.—Plautus.

Just Folks
By Edgar A. Guest

REV. MERTON S. RICE
(1873-1943)

His was the voice that spoke for God.

His was the gifted mind.

Which shined through both cloud and cloud.

Divinity could find.

His was the courage high which dared.

All evil to defy:

The rugged strength he never spared.

Whenever need was nigh.

His was the spirit truly great.

Men often over-tasked.

He went to comfort, far or late.

As if 'twas God who asked.

Now with his earthly mission through

In celestial sphere.

He lives again, a preacher who

The saints will joy to hear!

THAT HIDDEN BEAUTY

There are few mortals who have not, to some degree, an inherited sense and appreciation of beauty, but this is mostly physical and material. There is a higher, and rarer, beauty to be gained—and that largely veiled and secret—which is termed moral beauty. It is invisible and yet suggested in a number of ways—through speech, action and thought.

Died: On the 16th inst. Miss Julian Armor, daughter of Mr. Samuel Armor, of this borough, in the 16th year of her age.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Death of Rev. Dr. Baugher: We have the melancholy duty of announcing the death of Rev. Henry L. Baugher, D.D., President of Pa. College, which took place Tuesday evening.

Dr. Baugher has been connected with Pa. college since its organization in 1832, first as Professor of Greek and Belle Letters and subsequently as president, succeeding the late Dr. C. P. Krauth.

Funeral Services: The funeral services of Dr. Baugher took place on Friday morning, at the residence on college campus. Impressive remarks were made by Rev. Dr. Hay, pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. Lochman of York, and Rev. Dr. Butler, of Washington. Rev. Dr. Schumacher closed with prayer. Rev. Drs. Schumacher, Lochman, Brown, Valentine and Baum and Rev. Stork acted as pallbearers. The services at the grave were by Drs. Hay and Brown.

Christ church, whose pulpit Dr. Baugher has filled from time to time, has been draped in mourning, by order of the church council. The words "Remember the words I spoke unto you while I was yet with you," appearing in large letters on the recess back of the pulpit.

April Court: Court is in session as we go to press, Judge Butler of the Chester district presiding. Judge Fisher, who has not sufficiently recovered his health to preside, attended to the miscellaneous business on Monday afternoon. Judge Butler has made a favorable impression on the members of the bar, by his urbanity, promptness and courtesy.

J. H. LeFever, Esq., was on Monday, on motion of D. McConaughy, Esq., admitted to the bar, after a creditable examination in open court.

The grand jury on Tuesday approved the application for the incorporation of York Springs as a town.

Millinery: Miss Ross M. Mondorf will continue the millinery business in Hunterstown, and has the latest spring styles.

Three "E" Firms

Washington, April 19 (AP)—Three Pennsylvania firms were listed by the War department today to receive the Army-Navy "E" for outstanding performance on war contracts. They were: Standard Steel Spring company, plants 1, 2 and 3, Coraopolis; Shupakoff Ceramic and Manufacturing company, Latrobe, and Frank Ix and Sons, Inc., New Holland.

Physical beauty often melts away, but moral beauty—that something that hides deep in the heart and soul—is immortal!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Yourself as Pupil."

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

The Fracas at Harrisburg: In this paper will be found an account of a disgraceful affair which took place on the floor of the House of Representatives at Harrisburg a few days ago. A committee was appointed to report on the subject. That committee reported on Tuesday. A motion was made to expel Mr. McGowan from the House, and Mr. Bratton from coming within the bar of the hall during the session. A substitute was offered to merely reprimand McGowan. This led to a debate of the most exciting character—in which threats of cow-hiding, etc., and abuse of the press and each other formed a large part. The question was finally taken on the motion to "reprimand" only, which was lost, 35 to 48. (Marshall and Myers voted in the affirmative.) The next vote would have probably expelled him; but before it could be done, Mr. Tusti presented to the speaker a communication from Mr. McGowan resigning his seat! This bars further proceedings.

New Establishment: The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has again commenced the manufacture of Tin & Sheet Iron Ware, in all its various branches in Chambersburg street, next door to the post office.

Stone pipe of all sizes will always be kept on hand, or made to order.

The subscriber will also attend to making and putting up house spouting, at the shortest notice, and upon reasonable terms.

The faculty of Pennsylvania college would call the attention of the public to this institution, which has now been in successful operation for upwards of ten years.

Religious Exercises: Prayers are attended every morning and evening by all the students, who are also required to attend public worship every Sabbath in the College church, and are not allowed to go to any other place, unless parents or guardians request it and designate the church in which they desire them to worship. The students are also required to attend a Bible class on Sabbath afternoon, under the care of the principal.

Could Quit Next Week:

"There is no desire on our part to transfer the jobs to get some political positions for followers of the Republican party. This proposal has the commendation of several governmental agencies."

With the once-hoped for April 29 adjournment only 10 days away, Heyburn commented "we'll be here until fall, anyway, if we try to act on all problems now before the legislature."

He added, however, that the legislature could quit next week if "we decide to pass the tax and appropriations program and go on home." Heyburn said the House-approved tax program, estimated to bring in $154,782,325, "will probably be reported out for Senate floor action tomorrow."

FRAUD PROBE TO BE REOPENED AT MECHANICSBURG

Harrisburg, April 19 (AP)—A federal grand jury investigation into charges of fraud in connection with the construction of the $40,000,000 naval supply depot at nearby Mechanicsburg will be resumed April 28, United States District Attorney Frederick V. Follmer, disclosed.

United States Commissioner Sidney E. Friedman of Harrisburg, meanwhile, made public today what he said was a copy of letters he sent March 2 to Federal Judges Albert L. Watson and Albert H. Johnson concerning charges he said attributed to him "responsibility for unfavorable press releases" last year about the way the depot investigation was being conducted.

The inquiry was opened last December shortly after Friedman declared there was "solid basis in fact" to reports that "wholesale theft, bribery and embezzlement" caused a shortage of equipment and material worth $1,000,000 at the depot.

Charge "Unwarranted."

Friedman also asserted federal investigators were "hamstrung" in the inquiry, but Attorney General Biddle termed the assertion "ridiculous" and directed Friedman be called before the jury for explanation.

The grand jury, in a presentation December 11, declared "the recently highly publicized accusations impugning the integrity of the Department of Justice, the Navy department, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States District Attorney's Office for the Middle District of Pennsylvania were wholly unwarranted and without basis in fact."

Nine Await Trial

Friedman's letter stated he declined to submit in writing to the judges a denial he had made verbally to the complaint read to him at a conference with the jurists in February, until a copy of the charges is furnished him. The letter said "I was asked by both judges to furnish a statement in writing answering such charges," but asserted the origin of the complaint was not disclosed.

Judge Johnson at Lewisburg declined immediate comment, although he acknowledged he had received a letter from Friedman in March.

The jury, before recessing in January, returned indictments against nine civilians. All are awaiting trial in federal court.

To Build 600 Homes For War Workers

Pittsburgh, April 19 (AP)—The Allegheny County Housing Authority announced that the Federal government had directed it to start immediately construction of 600 temporary homes near Ambridge to house war workers.

Two hundred of the homes are to be built in Leet township at a cost of approximately $800,000 and another 400 in Sewickley township for more than $1,000,000. The Allegheny county sites were approved, the authority said, after no land was found available in adjoining Beaver county for Ambridge district workers. A housing shortage has existed near the new Leetsdale shipyards and Ambridge war industries.

Lou Boudreau Asserts Indians Will Be Team To Beat*MOST MANAGERS RELUCTANT TO MAKE FORECAST

BY HAROLD CLAASSEN

New York, April 19 (AP)—If all the indecision expressed by the major league managers on the eve of the second baseball campaign of the present war era were placed end to end it would be as evasive as an Axis communiqué.

The curtailed training offered by the northern camps, playing out the schedule that opens tomorrow with a new type of ball and the war's manpower demands—both of the immediate past and for the coming five months—have combined to make the managers even more reticent than usual.

Only Lou Boudreau, 25-year-old manager-shortstop of the Cleveland Indians, gave an entirely optimistic answer as the Associated Press made its annual pre-season poll of the 16 managers of diamond strategy.

"I am very much convinced that the Indians are the team to beat in the American league pennant race," said the youthful chieftain who is starting his second year as boss of the Clevelanders. "My club will be in there all season and definitely is the one that will have to be beat."

Writers' Choices

His prediction contrasted with that of the country's baseball writers who, in an earlier poll, picked the New York Yankees to win the pennant and meet St. Louis of the National league in the 1943 World series.

Billy Southworth, who guided the St. Louis Cardinals to their World title last fall, said he was well satisfied with the replacements for Terry Moore, Enos Slaughter and Johnny Beazley—all stars of the 1942 team but now wearing Uncle Sam's uniforms.

"But I am not making any predictions for the coming year," he added, "although we will be speedy on the base paths, have a well-rounded pitching staff and the best catching in the league. We will, as in the past, use our speed to the best advantage."

Jimmy Dykes, cigar-smoking leader of the Chicago White Sox, expressed the thoughts of virtually all the managers when he said "this ought to be a very interesting season because the picture can change any time."

All Uncertain

"You might go to bed one night with your club in first place and wake up in the morning with it in the Army. I don't see how any team can make a runaway of the pennant races."

Joe McCarthy, whose rebuilt New York Yankees didn't defeat a single major league for this spring but still are favored for their seventh flag in eight years, replied that it is "too risky to make predictions. I can't tell how the Yanks will fare. Nobody can."

"I'm not making a prediction," chimed in Leo Durocher of the Brooklyn Dodgers, "but I will say that I am satisfied with my team and that it is ready."

Bill McKechnie of the Cincinnati Reds was even more silent than customary. "I haven't seen another National league club all spring and with conditions as unsettled as they are, it would be foolish to pick the winner."

Wilson Reticent

Answering a question by asking one was Jimmy Wilson's reply. Told that his Chicago Cubs had some support for the National league crown, Wilson came back with "I won't predict, but a guy would be crazy not to be shooting for first place, wouldn't he?"

Frankie Frisch, turbulent mentor of the Pittsburgh Pirates, admitted he was eying the first division "but in a war year one doesn't know what to expect. I think the majors will gnash the season and draw well."

Casey Stengel of the Boston Braves, Mel Ott of the New York Giants and Bucky Harris, now of the Philadelphia Phillies, promised to be troublesome all season and Stengel saw no reason why his outfit shouldn't finish above seventh place.

Memories of what happened during the seasons of World war tempered Connie Mack's response. The veteran boss of the Philadelphia Athletics predicted that "there may be a lot of surprises before the season is over. Someone may even come up with a duplicate of the Boston Braves of 1914 who climbed from last place in July to first in October. But I still think the Yanks are the team to beat although the Athletics will do all right."

Show Confidence

The American league's two new managers, Ossie Bluege of the Washington Senators and Steve O'Neill of the Detroit Tigers, both were confident.

Bluege asserted his club was the most improved of any in the circuit and was definitely of first division calibre while O'Neill warned that if "First Baseman Rudy York has a big year—and it looks like he may—then watch out for the Tigers."

That warning also was sent out by Luke Sewell of the St. Louis Browns, who declared "it is impossible for a real good race."

Three Titles Up In Semi-Pro Leagues

St. Louis, Mo., April 19 (AP)—There will be four titles at stake instead of one when the nation's semi-pro baseball teams compete in state tournaments this summer.

Commissioner George Sisler ruled today that in addition to the state championship, titles will be awarded to the industrial, service and town sponsored teams which lead their respective classifications in each state tournament.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 19 (AP)—New Jersey Senator Warren Barbour hasn't asked our opinion about his suggestion to revive the Joe Louis-Billy Conn fight, but here 'ts . . . last year we were pretty much in favor of the thing until the surrounding circumstances became a bit too gamey, figuring it was an easy way to raise dough for the Army Emergency Relief and at the same time provide long-range entertainment for soldiers and sailors all over the world. . . . Now the AER is no longer sponsoring sports events and we think there's a big difference between letting a couple of brand new soldiers take time out to fight and interrupting the progress of two men who have been training nearly a year. . . . Besides, after seeing Joe and Billy, it would be tough to go on watching the kind of fighters we've become used to during the winter.

FAN'S LAMENT

Sunny's on the pitcher's mound; Grandpaw guards first base; Uncle Joe is fat and slow;

But still he has his place. You'd never know our sluggers' row: To call it that is treason. We ain't got what we used to have.

To start the baseball season. We don't need what we used to have.

As long as there's a war on, If you think we won't miss those guys, Pally, you're a moron.

MONDAY MATINEE

Notre Dame's track team, winner in four indoor track carnivals, will split up for the Drake and Penn Relays next week-end. . . . When Lieut.-Col. L. S. MacPhail turned up at the Pimlico races Saturday, the only thing he'd say about baseball was, "I like the Dodgers." . . . Lum, the radio comedian, is looking for a new record for hunch betting the first time his horse, Gas Ration, races at Churchill Downs. . . . Let's hope the boss doesn't come home on a street car, like the customers. . . . The slight handicap of a broken arm apiece didn't stop a couple of broken arm apiece didn't stop a couple of San Diego, Calif., gals, Goldie Novak and Jewell Sale, from going through with their scheduled bowling match recently. Goldie bowled left-handed and bettered her regular average. . . . The opening day of the major league season Wednesday also is Joe McCarthy's 56th birthday—and no chance of a postponement or a count of the weather. . . .

"I'm not making a prediction," chimed in Leo Durocher of the Brooklyn Dodgers, "but I will say that I am satisfied with my team and that it is ready."

Bill McKechnie of the Cincinnati Reds was even more silent than customary. "I haven't seen another National league club all spring and with conditions as unsettled as they are, it would be foolish to pick the winner."

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Tommy Fitzgerald, Louisville Courier-Journal: "Even though the Kentucky Derby this year is being called the 'street car derby,' women patrons shouldn't expect the jockeys to get up and give them their seats."

SERVICE DEPT.

Three former Fort Worth, Texas, Star-Telegram scribes in the Army Air Force, Amos Melton, Lorin McMullen and Bill Sansing, all have been upped to first lieutenants. . . . Here's one reason for the popularity of the Camp Croft, S. C., golf driving range: A soldier could get a lot of free lessons just by watching three of the regular patrons, Pvt. Clayton Heffner, a former top-ranking tournament pro; PFC John Malicky, former amateur pro at Long Island's Shelter Rock course, and Lieut. Col. R. Otto Probst, Camp Croft inspector who claims the world's largest collection of golf literature and oddities. . . . Lieut. Vinnie Richards of the New York State Guard is attending the Second Service Command tactical school at Hackettstown, N. J. As we remember, Vinnie's tennis-playing days, his first service was pretty good, too, and his tactics darn near perfect.

DEFLATED

If Dick Wakefield, the Tiger rookie, had any tendency to get puffed up about his hitting, a fan must have let it out of him the other day. . . . Seeing Dick pick a Ted Williams' model bat, the bystander said, "You'll know you have made good when Ted Williams uses a Wakefield model."

Show Confidence

The Boston Red Sox, whose contributions to the armed services includes an entire outfield and one of the game's better shortstops, remained optimistic, Manager Joe Cronin observing that "since all clubs have been hit hard, I look
